Assistant Commissioner
for [illegible]
(Absent from Headquarters)

The circumstances mentioned in paras 2 and 3 above, the R.C. Salem recommends that S.No. 57 belonging to the defunct Sri Basavanna Temple Yedehalli which is now under the Board could be transferred to Sri Basavanna Temple at [illegible] whose income is adequate to meet its expenses and where services are being regularly conducted. This is said to be a deserving institution. The R.C. recommends the transfer while pointing out that though the defunct Basavanna Temple belongs to the same category i.e. one of Lingayat they are not in the same village. The other details mentioned in the R.C.'s letter are also noted. The recommendation of the R.C. in the transfer of the S.No. 57 to Sri Basavanna Temple is for orders.

The Rules for regulating the disposal of reserved grants are given on pp 237-238 of the Mys Manual. So far as I can see there is no rule which requires that the transfer of the grant should be in favour of an institution of the same character as the deposit institution. The only limitation I find is that a reserved grant should not ordinarily be allowed to a minor. This rule does not come in the way of the Mys Comm'r proposal. His recommendation is in strict accordance with Rule 13) and may be sanctioned

With reference to your letter No.C.C.C65/40-41 dated 25th August 19 enquiring if there are or other deserving institutions of the 1942 type to which the inam lands can be transformed, I have the honour to state that the Amildar, Shimoga Taluk reports that there are no functioning institutions of the same kind to wh the inam land could be transformed. The villagers of Kadhalli a neighbouring village have prayed for the transfer of land I inam grant to Sri Basavanadevaru temple at Yedehalli village as this institution has been endowed with only one inam land viz., Survey Number 23 any 7-20 assessed at Rs 7 (Rupees 2-6-0) and the income derived therefrom is not sufficient to meet the expenditure. The Amildar reports that no has been the temple at Yedehalli and it is maintained in good condition and the sevas are being conducted and that the villagers of Chandranakere are not willing to revive the mutt, nor interested in getting the land cultivated.

But the Amildar, Shimoga and the Sub Division Officer, Shimoga recommend that the inam land Survey number 57 of Chandranakere village endowed to defunct Vimalta Mutt may be transferred to Basavanadevaru temple of Yedehalli village.

As it is reported that there are no other functioning institutions of the same kind in the place, I request that sanction may kindly be accorded for the transfer of land of survey number 57 of Chandranakere village to Basavanadevaru temple at Yedehalli village without cancelling the inam tenure of the land as recommended in this office letter No.C.1450/40-41 dated 17th June 1941.

The connected records received from the Sub Division Officer with his report No.RS.1331-6C0/39-40 dated 17th September 1942 are sent herewith for kind perusal and return.
